HON. EVERITT JENNINGS

Of Madisonville, Announces His Candidacy for Commonwealth Attorney of this Judicial District--Says the Madisonville Hustler

IS NO DOUBT ONE OF THE ABLEST MEN IN THE DISTRICT.

In as much as it has been generally understood over this judicial district that Hon. Everitt Jennings of this city will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's attorney, a reporter of the Hustler interviewed Mr. Jennings and he announces positively that he will be a candidate and his formal announcement will appear later.

Mr. Jennings is known over this district better, perhaps, than any other lawyer of his age, and has always rendered valiant service to the cause of Democracy in every campaign. He is an able lawyer, a brilliant speaker and an affable gentleman and if nominated and elected to this important trust the commonwealth will be ably and fearlessly represented. Notwithstanding his able and constant service to his party he has never before asked for any office of political preferment. Mr. Jennings is no doubt one of the strongest men in the district and the Hustler predicts his nomination and election.—Madisonville Hustler.

We note the above clipping from the Madisonville Hustler in regard to the announcement of Hon. Everitt Jennings, of that city for Commonwealth's Attorney of this Judicial District.

Mr. Jennings is one of the for-

TAFT A Unitarian.

As I shall not have time to answer the many communications coming to me with regards to my recent editorial protesting against the election of a man to the presidency of these United States, who denies the Deity of Jesus Christ, I will answer them, one and all, at this time, through the columns of THE HERALD. Among these communications coming from every quarter, there has been only one of adverse criticism. This one calls attention to the fact that Mr. Taft is a Unitarian. Jesus Christ was all he claimed to be, or he was an impostor. He claimed to be one and equal with the Father. He said, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." This, the Unitarians deny. Of course they have many ways of wriggling in and out, explaining and hairsplitting, but they are a curse and blight to any community in which they exist in sufficient numbers to give them influence. The Christian church does not, cannot recognize them or fellowship them as Christians, I believe it would be a great national sin, and bring on a great national calamity to elect a man our chief magistrate, who has the views with regard to Christ that a Unitarian must have.

To the large number of friends who have sent me words of approval and congratulation, I return my thanks. But for the candidate's Unitarianism, I should never have said word. It startles and saddens me to think of the great, greedy, godless corporations and conscienceless money kings uniting their tremendous influence to put this man upon the throne of power. Nearly two thousand years ago this poor, mad, blind world reached the height of sin when it cried in mad frenzy, release unto us Barabbas and crucify Christ. Mad men had tested cases in which he has been employed as an attorney.

Readers of the Press of this county will no doubt remember his visit to Marion during the last State campaign at which time he made a speech on behalf of the Democratic candidates, which was considered by those who heard it one of the fairest, most logical, and best speeches delivered in this county during the campaign. If Mr. Jennings should be elected as Commonwealth Attorney of this district, we believe the interests of the Commonwealth will be ably represented, and the voters of the district will have no cause to regret their choice.

We do not know whether Mr. Grayot will again be a candidate but if he should be, we trust our readers will not construe this as any reflection upon him or his candidacy. His long and able service is sufficient evidence of the well merited confidence the voters of this district have in him. And if he should be a candidate for the nomination again, this District will be exceptionally fortunate in the material it has from which to select its Commonwealth Attorney.

Most young lawyers of Hopkins Co., bar, and has demonstrated his ability as a lawyer in the many hotly contested cases in which he has been employed as an attorney.

Not long ago, the Senate of the U. S. ignored Christ's teaching that "No man cometh to the Father but by me," and elected a Unitarian chaplain to pray for them to mock God.

But no one seemed to care. It looks as if this country has become so stupid to be aroused to a state of righteousness indignation. Directly afterward, one man just out of the Senate was shot to death by the woman he had debauched and deserted, another was sent to prison for dishonesty, another died in time to keep out of prison, another was in a divorce court and mixed up in a most disgusting scandal. This same Senate failed to break the power of the whiskey power shipping its intoxicants into prohibition states and zones, and thus the government legalizes and protects crime.

It is high time for ministers of the gospel to cry aloud for Christian men to think, for patriots to arouse themselves. If we continue to sow the wind, as sure as God is true and His word is true, we will reap the whirlwind. We are approaching a crisis in our history, of such vital importance, that it seems to me that silence would be criminal, and I have spoken with malice toward none and love for all.

James Monroe Gilbert Dead.

On Thursday night at 11 p. m., Mr. James M. Gilbert died at his home north of the city of the infirmities of old age in his 79th year. He was the last, save one, of a large family. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Lynn, and his second a Miss Worley. Mr. Gilbert was born within two miles of where he died and lived four score years in our community. He was the father of the first Mrs. P. A. Howerton who died several years ago and of the following children all of whom survive him, Roe M. James, Mrs. Jesse Fritts, Mrs. M. T. Worley, Mrs. H. L. Holloman, Mrs. Calvin Johnson. The interment was at Pilot Knob Friday afternoon.

THE KNOCKER AND THE KICKER.

The fellow who kicks the hardest generally speaking about the county paper is usually the one who owes for it and whose paper has been discontinued by the editor for nonpayment on dues. It is quite amusing then, to the editors friends and he has a few thank goodness, to hear the big dead beats stand around and knock on the paper because it's "got them down so fine." Some men have money to spend for whiskey, tobacco and beer and an empty bottle can be found most anywhere around where they loaf (they don't usually have much business,) but let a collector call with a bill for some necessary of life and then they are ready to give him the dodge.

Sun Bros. Shows Are Greater Than Ever.

Well the show has come and gone. Tuesday, we were entertained by one of the best and most satisfying of all the tent shows that visit Marion. While the Sun Brothers shows do not blow their bugle much on the streets and "Bally-hoo" with a lot of tinsel and unnecessary trappings, they certainly "make good" under their tents with a performance that is worth the price of admission charged.

The show has appeared in Marion upon several former occasions and has always pleased our people. But on this their fourth trip here, they gave even better satisfaction.

The acts and features were all new and of a highly meritorious character. The display of wild animals was also interesting and worth seeing. The old time policy of this show is not allowing any gamblers and people with fake issues to travel with the show was again in evidence.

This met with the hearty approval of our people. The result was that everybody gave Sun Bros. and their aggregation "the glad hand". During the day not a single arrest was made and the local officers say that it was the quietest and best behaved crowd that ever assembled in Marion.

After night performance was concluded, the show quietly pulled stakes and left over the I C road for Princeton, where they showed on Wednesday.

Accidentally Killed His Own Sister.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 15.—Walter Maxton, nine years old, today instantly killed his sister, Belle, age seven, with a shotgun. They are children of a prominent farmer. Their parents were away from home when a neighbor returned a shotgun he had borrowed. The children were playing with the weapon and it was accidentally discharged, blowing off the top of the girl's head. Mrs. Mayton swooned on seeing the body and has not recovered consciousness.

House Erected without a Word.

Bloomburg, Pa., Aug. 13.—Like Solomon's temple, the residence of Samuel Andrews, of this place, was built in silence. Andrew is a deaf-mute every stroke of the work on the house, from laying the foundation to installing the plumbing was done by mutes, friends of Andrews, who live elsewhere in the State.

In Memory of Addie Minner.

On the seventh of August the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Hannah Minner and claimed for its victim her daughter, Addie Carty, aged seven years.

She was sick for about two weeks suffering of whooping cough, pneumonia and finally brain fever.

Addie was a sweet little girl and it was with sorrowing hearts that she was laid to rest in the Hurricane cemetery Sunday evening Aug. 9th, Rev. Johnson conducting the funeral services.

It was hard to part with Addie, but God who doeth all things well knows best, so he called the dear little bud that was so fair, to blossom in the mansion he has prepared.

Suit For Insurance on Tobacco Which Was Burned.—Policies Call for $4,000.

A. H. Cardin, a tobacco grower of View, Crittenden county, to-day brought two suits against the Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company of New York, to enforce the collection of policies aggregating $4,000 on his tobacco, two-story warehouse and rehandling machinery. The company refuses to pay on the ground that the fire was caused by the incendiarism of night riders.

It is the purpose of the company to plead the riot clause, which is contained in all standard fire insurance policies. The point will be made that a condition of riot existed which resulted in the night riders firing into the buildings in question.

One suit is for $2,000 on tobacco insured and said to be worth $3,040, while the other is for $500 on fixtures and $1,500 on the plaintiff's warehouse. The policies dated from December 11, 1908, and were good for one year. On February 8, 1908, The plaintiff, according to one of his counsel, T. W. Sindle, is a member of the Society of Equity. He denies any knowledge of night riders ever firing his warehouse or of how it caught fire. The policy is contended, is enforceable under the usual provisions.—Louisville Times.

TEACHERS HAVE FIRST CALL

No Money to Pay Other Warrants Between Now and October First--Says State Treasurer, of Kentucky.

NOW HAVE BALANCE OF BUT $182,000 ON HAND.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 10.—State Treasurer Farley gave out the following interview today in reference to the State finances: "I find that in order to pay the school teachers the first installment which is due them October first, we will be unable from now on up to that date to pay but very few of the warrants which may be issued. There will be due the schools on October first about $440,000. We now have a balance of but $182,000 on hand. The total collections for August and September last year were a little over $672,000 while the expenses for the same months were something over $621,000 is almost an offset as will be seen.

"You can see at once that if we pay the schools, we can pay but few of the other claims until after the Sheriff sends in taxes collected which will not be earlier than November. The schools are entitled to their money because we have been borrowing largely from the school fund to meet general expenses. If we had done this there would be plenty in the school fund to meet this payment. The total expenses for running the State in its different branches has been more each year for the last number of years than the income of the taxes and all other sources, and why our Legislature knowing this failed to provide means to meet all demands and was so lavish in making appropriations is something I do not understand.

A Sad Affliction.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summerville, of Mattoon, were all grieved very much, when they heard of the accidental fall which crippled their beautiful little ten year old girl, Mildred. It seems that by slipping on the floor she dislocated her hip joint and was unable to walk. They had hopes of her getting better, and did every thing local medical skill could suggest but all to no avail. Mrs. Summerville, as a last resort, took her to the osteopathic institute at Franklin, Ky., and we are glad to report that she is gradually improving.

In Society.

The Marion people always do the right thing at the right time. Society here is ever trying to do the gracious act to some one of its favorites, or something in recognition of merit, or especial accomplishments, or social qualities. On account of Mrs. Sayre's announced intention of removing to the "Crescent City", in the near future her friend and neighbor, Mrs. S. Gugenheim issued invitations to a "Military Euchre" last Friday afternoon to be given at her beautiful home, corner Main and Depot St. The house was decorated in the colors of the Republic, the national flags being everywhere in evidence and beautiful red and white flowers were in profusion. Thirteen games were played Mrs. Digne Eldred of Princeton, (who was a guest at Crittenden Spring) won the visitors prize, Mrs. Sayre the guest of honor won second prize, Miss Wilborn the third prize. The refreshments were elegant, the national colors predominating in the cake and brick ice each of which was served in three colors red, white and blue, punch was served to each guest on arrival.

Grave Yard Notice.

All who are interested in the Tush grave yard will meet there with tools and dinner Saturday Aug., 29. J. E. CROWELL.

"M. F. P."

When you read the county paper Don't be surprised at what you see For in it you will find a dapper And it's labeled M. F. P.

Of course there's lots of little soldiers With "big guns" I will agree But it takes a man to take them Don't you think so M. F. P.

Then there's Rufus Robinson Our old neighbor don't you see If he talks, you soon get sore Ain't that so old M. F. P?

Then the fight at Henry Bennett Don't it hurt him some Oh! Gee! But the Night Riders did not get him Ain't you sorry M. F. P?

You may knock on Gov. Wilson Say he's duped and fed "stuffed" If I was going in County politics I'd do the same "Old M. F. P."

DYCSBURG SOLDIER BOYS.

Clarence Nall A Marion Boy.

The Nashville Banner says: Mrs. T. Clarence Nall, of Forrest City, Ark., has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gaines, for the past two weeks. She was joined here last Tuesday by her husband, Prof. T. Clarence Nall, Principal of Crowley Ridge Institute of Forrest City, who has been attending the Summer School at Knoxville, Tenn.

Lou Jolly Dead.

Lou Jolly, of the Salem vicinity, died last week and was buried by the Farmers' Union local at old Pinckneyville church cemetery. He was about sixty-five years of age and had lived where he died, for many years. Mr. Jolly's wife was a Miss Sills. She and one daughter survive him. He was one of the representative farmers and best men of his section of the state.
